

The rectified version of the Teacher Education Act was announced by the President on June 14, 2017, in which rules for teacher's qualification examination and internship are reformed. Taking effect on and after February 1, 2018, qualification examination must be taken before internship. Through the examination to choose the qualified ones, the teaching and tutoring system of internship will be therefore practiced.