

3. Educational Administrative System and Duty

From central to local, there are two levels of our education administrative system: the Ministry of Education (MOE) in the central government; and the Bureaus of Education in the municipal governments and in the county (or city) governments. The functions and duties of these educational authorities are described below:

1. The Ministry of Education (MOE)

- (1) The MOE is in charge of nation-wide affairs in connection with academic, cultural, and educational administration.
- (2) The MOE provides direction and supervision to the highest local administrative executives for the fulfillment of their responsibilities.
- (3) If the orders or disciplines made by the highest local administrative executive were found to be abusive or violating the law, the MOE may suspend or nullify these orders and disciplinary decisions after the approval of the Executive Yuan.

2. The Bureaus of Education

Within their respective jurisdictions are:

- (1) in charge of school education;
- (2) in charge of social education;
- (3) supervising ventures operated by educational and academic institutions;
- (4) planning and managing libraries, museums, public stadiums, and gymnasiums;
- (5) in charge of other educational administrative affairs.
